

THE EVASONS

Mentalist Duo

In 1983 Jeff Evason was working as a radio announcer and part-time magician in Toronto. Tessa had recently moved to Canada from the Caribbean Island of St. Lucia and she was working as a fashion model. It seems that they were destined to be together.

Although they had never met, Jeff and Tessa shared a mutual friend, Lisa, a fashion designer. To help enhance an upcoming fashion show, Lisa invited Jeff to perform a short act of illusion using one of the models as an assistant. When she asked the girls if anyone wanted to work with a magician, Tessa volunteered immediately. When Jeff and Tessa performed together in the fashion show, their act was a hit.

From then on they worked together often in and around Toronto. It wasn't long before they received an offer to perform on a Caribbean cruise ship for six months. That cruise ship booking was the beginning of a magical partnership that continues today.

In their magic act they often performed feats of telepathy. This type of demonstration seemed to be what pleased the audience most. They decided to study the area of psychic phenomena further and devote more of their show to performances of ESP. It was a good decision.

Their peers and fans alike recognize Jeff & Tessa as the finest mentalist duo in the world. They have amazed audiences worldwide in over 28 countries with their thought provoking, interactive show consisting of ESP, Mind over Matter, Super Memory, Telepathy, Prediction and Levitation.

They have been seen by millions on network TV shows including Powers of the Paranormal on FOX, The World's Greatest Magic on NBC, Grand Illusions on Discovery Channel, Open Mike with Mike Bullard on CTV & The Comedy Network and Masters of Illusion on PAX.

The Evasons are award-winning entertainers. The international Psychic Entertainers Association voted them top performers of the year and gave them the association's highest honor The Dunninger Memorial Award for Distinguished Professionalism in the Performance of Mentalism. At the World Magic Seminar in Las Vegas they won the SARMOTTI Award in the World Challenge Stage Competition. They are the first mentalists ever to receive this prestigious award, which magic superstars Siegfried & Roy personally present to their favorite act. In 2003, they became the first recipients of the Mentalism Award from the famed Milbourne Christopher Foundation at the annual Society of American Magicians convention in Las Vegas.

The Evasons are a popular act at colleges and universities across North America, where they consistently get rave reviews. In Las Vegas, they've performed at Bally's, The Tropicana, Caesar's Palace and The Rio. They work internationally on the finest cruise ships including Disney and Holland America. They regularly entertain at corporate events for major corporations. They have entertained United Nations troops in Europe, the Middle East, and the Canadian Arctic. They have performed in Asia, Hawaii, the Caribbean, and Mexico. The world truly is their stage.

Jeff & Tessa don't call themselves psychics or magicians, and they don't claim to have "supernatural powers," however, they have no secret assistants and they do not use any concealed electronic communication devices. In fact, they offer $25,000 to anybody who can prove otherwise!

The Evasons focus on generating enthusiasm and creating a sense of wonder. Regardless of whether or not you accept ESP as a reality, their goal is to entertain the believers and the skeptics alike with a mind-boggling performance that leaves people talking!
